He referred to the late war with Spain, calling attention to the valorous deeds of the men from the South. He stated that there were from the South. He stated that there were six prominent heroes from the South and six from the North. His mention of the names of General Wheeler and Lieufenant Hobson was loudly applauded. In speaking of the proposed pensioning by the United States Government of the former Confederate soldiers, he asked how many of these veterans had asked for such aid. Every man cried no at the sucression He Every man cried no at the suggestion. He further said that the soldiers of the South need no aid in caring for their living or dead. The soldiers of the South have learned to care for themselves and have ultivated a spirit of independence.

Representative M. E. Benton of Missouri was the next speaker and told many an-ecdotes of the civil war. He referred to the proposed pensioning of the Confeder-ate soldiers and said that they were not in need of bounty.

He speke of the part that the women of the South have played in providing suitable graveyards for the Confederate dead, and stated that, in his opinion, no nid is needed. He advised the former Confeder needed. He advised the former Confederates to teach their children the truth of history by telling them that the aim of the Confederacy was not to destroy the Union, but to form a government which was more to the taste of the people of the South. The Deadly Grip

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal gerns! Don't neglect the "Grip" or you will open the door to Pneumonia and Consumption and invite death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull, heavy pains, mucous discharges from the nose, sore throat, and never-let-go cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cough with troches, tablets, or poor, chieap syrups. Cure it at once with Dr. King's New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bron-chial troubles. It kills the disease gernes, heals the lungs, and prevents the dreaded after effects from the malady. Price-56e and $1. Money back if not cured. In the decade ending 1898 the total average number of candidates was 1,327, or one candidate for every 557 communicants. In the four concluding years of the later dec-ade, however, there was a very serious falling off in the number of candidates. In 1896 the church had under its care a total or 1,508 candidates, the largest number in its history.

Justin McCarthy Wanted.

Justin McCarthy is wanted. Justin should not be confounded with another distinguished man of that name. This Justin McCarthy is a Norfolk contractor. He disapeared from his home two weeks ago. He is believed to be out on a convivial demonstration, and that he is in this city. The police have been asked to keep an eye open for him.

The congress of the Young Men's Christian Association will hold its preliminary meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. An election of officers will be held and important business transacted, and a full attendance is earnestly desired.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago, when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for colds and la grippe. Every bottle warranted.
